Definition and function of cookies

A "cookie" is a file that is downloaded to the user's computer when accessing certain web pages.

Cookies allow a web page, among other things, to store and retrieve information about the browsing habits of a user or their computer and, depending on the information they contain and the way they use their equipment, they can be used to recognize the user.

Cookies do not extract information from the user's computer, nor do they determine where the user is located.

Types of cookies used by this Website

The Website only uses the so-called "technical cookies" which allow the user to navigate through a web page, platform or application, and use of different options or services that exist in it. Controlling traffic and data communication, identifying the session, accessing restricted access parts, remembering the elements that make up an order, performing the purchase process of an order, making the application for registration or participation in an event, using security elements during navigation, and storing contents for the diffusion of videos or sound or share content through social networks are some of the roles of technical cookies.

How to disable or delete cookies

You can allow, block or delete the cookies installed on your computer by configuring the browser options on your computer.

If you do not accept cookies, the Website may not work properly.

Cookies Policy Update

It is possible that, to respect new interpretations made by the competent regulatory authorities, judges and / or courts, this Cookies Policy may suffer some modification, so the user is requested to check its content regularly.

Acceptance of the Cookies Policy

You expressly accept, for the use of this Website, the treatment of the information collected in the manner and for the purposes mentioned above. And, likewise, it acknowledges knowing the possibility of rejecting the treatment of such data or information by rejecting the use of Cookies by selecting the appropriate configuration for this purpose in your browser. As has been previously indicated, the option to block Cookies in your browser may not allow you to fully use all the features of the Website.
